

Supported By:

The task involves conducting in-depth research on the specific products and culling out of historical data from the archives to position the earmarked product to get the GI tag from the Govt. Of India authorities.

Currently we are working on GI tag for Ishadi Mango from Uttarakannada District.

