Training Program - Cum - Workshop On Composting, Panchagavya And Smokeless Stoves - Chullhas

- A two-day training program-cum-workshop on Compost making and fuel-efficient smokeless cook-stoves was organized in an open Mango field under a Tent at Hajipur Village, Nindura Block in Barabanki District, about 30 kms away from Lucknow City in collaboration with the local GEF-UNDP SGP project partner, Muskan Jyoti and We Care Society, Bangalore.
- This event was specially arranged in the field to ensure hands-on training and practical demonstration in making compost pits from agro-waste (through two different methods and learning from the existing SGP partners), liquid manure, and assembling of cook-stove moulds and making the cook-stoves in three different groups by the participants themselves.
- A total of 190 participants took part from 12 States of India took part in this 2 days program
- The participants were from existing SGP NGO partners, Private sector CSR partners, 23 farmers from other States, local farmers, officials of NABARD and their farmers, Krishi Vigyan Kendra, U.P. Livelihood Mission and resource persons.
- The stakeholders comprised of village leaders, NTFP collectors, NGOs/CBOs, men, women, children, youth and elderly and local community members.
